EDUCATION

- 2017–2022 Ph.D., Communication Sciences and Disorders
 Temple University, Philadelphia, PA
- 2011–2013 M.A., Speech Language Pathology
 University of Maryland, College Park, MD
- 2007–2011 B.A. with highest distinction, Speech and Hearing Sciences
 Indiana University, Bloomington, IN

ACADEMIC POSITIONS

- 2022–Present Postdoctoral Research Scholar, Speech Production Lab
 Syracuse University, Syracuse, NY
 PI: Jonathan Preston, Ph.D., CCC-SLP
- 2018–2022 Research Assistant, Speech Language and Brain Lab
 Temple University, Philadelphia PA
 PI: Edwin Maas, Ph.D.
- 2017–2019 Teaching Assistant, College of Public Health
 Temple University, Philadelphia, PA

RESEARCH FUNDING

- January 2020–
January 2022 F31 Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Award (NRSA)
The Impact of Individual-Level Factors on Progress in Speech Therapy for Children with Childhood Apraxia of Speech (F31DC018723)
This Predoctoral Individual NRSA investigated the impact of individual baseline factors on response to treatment for childhood apraxia of speech (CAS). We examined 27 children who participated in treatment for CAS (funded by R01 DC017768; PI: Maas; ClinicalTrials.gov ID NCT03903120).
Total Award Amount: $63,024
Role: PI
- June 2018–
September 2018 First Summers Research Initiative Grant, Temple University Graduate School
Autism-Centered Therapy for Childhood Apraxia of Speech (ACT4CAS)
The First Summers Research Initiative is a peer-reviewed internal grant funded by the Graduate School at Temple University. The goal of this single case experimental design investigation was to examine the effects of ACT4CAS; the first treatment designed for children with co-occurring autism and childhood apraxia of speech.
Total Award Amount, $6,500
Role: PI

RESEARCH FUNDING—NOT AWARDED

Not Awarded	Ph.D. Scholarship, Council of Academic Programs in Communication Sciences and Disorders Treatment-Level Factors Impacting Individual Progress in Treatment for Childhood Apraxia of Speech (CAS) Proposal submitted November, 2020 Role: PI
Not Awarded	Predoctoral Fellowship, Autism Speaks Autism-Centered Therapy for Childhood Apraxia of Speech (ACT4CAS) Letter of Interest approved March 2019, Proposal submitted April 2019 Role: PI
Not Awarded	Predoctoral Fellowship, Autism Science Foundation Autism-Centered Therapy for Childhood Apraxia of Speech (ACT4CAS) Proposal submitted December 2018 Role: PI
